

Go Generals! It is a Great Day to be a General!

Dr. John Harris
Principal

Dr. Harris was appointed principal at Andrew Jackson Middle School in August of 2011 and he is very excited to become a General and a member of the Brevard County School District. Dr. Harris has been a high school math teacher, college math instructor, assistant principal and principal during his 20 year tenure in public education. He completed his B.S. degree in math education, his M.Ed. in Educational Leadership and his Ed.D. in Educational Leadership all from the University of Central Florida. Dr. Harris was 3-year varsity football letterman at U.C.F. while receiving honors as the oldest football player in the nation at age 28. Dr. Harris also is U.S. Army veteran serving two years of duty in Germany.

Recent accomplishments include his service as principal of Parkway Middle School and moving the school grade from a "C" to an "A" in two years while achieving 100% Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). He also serves as an Advanced SACS CASI Chairperson reviewing schools and academic programs throughout the state of Florida.

Dr. Harris is a passionate student centered visionary leader that places student achievement first. He works diligently to ensure all students receive a quality education while maintaining his mission of supporting extracurricular opportunities and enhancing school spirit. He relishes the opportunity to lead Andrew Jackson Middle School as we prepare students for a technology driven workplace in an ever growing global community. His primary focus is to prepare all students to become life- long learners and productive citizens.
